

The Last Moment BLOUSES

$2.98

The new models follow the straight line from the shoulder down, giving very blousey effect. They are of cream lace, trimmed in pink and light blue ribbon, frill around neck. Also of pink and light blue chiffon trimmed in shadow lace.

New Crepe Blouses

at $3.50

Crepe de Chine Blouses, with kimono sleeves, hemstitched, frill and pearl buttons. Light blue, pink, yellow, white and capon.

New and Beautiful Models

In crepe de chine, with low neck, deep roll collars and upstanding frill, which makes these Blouses unusually attractive. $5.00

Kaufmann & Company
Corner Fourth and Broad Streets.

Social and Personal

The Governor of Virginia and Mrs. Henry C. Stuart were guests of honor last evening at a lovely dinner given by John P. Branch and his daughter, Miss Edna Branch, at their home, 1 West Franklin Street. Covers were laid for twenty guests, and the table was set with a centerpiece of pink flowers.

Governor and Mrs. Stuart will be hosts at a large reception at the Executive Mansion this evening, with a dance for the younger set following. It will be one of the handsomest functions of the late winter season with several hundred guests in attendance.

For Miss Miller.

Mrs. W. L. T. Rogers, of 1015 West Grace Street, has invitations out for a dance on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Maile Floy Miller, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John

M. Miller, Jr. Miss Miller has just returned from Lynchburg, where she has been much entertained for several weeks.

Affairs of Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon at the Country Club of Virginia, the three Chopt Road, were hosts at a "the-dance." It was a very attractive event, and about 125 members of the married set were entertained. The clubhouse was decorated in palms and roses, and an orchestra played for the dancing. Tea was served at small tables arranged with flowers. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Warren were Mrs. Coleman Wortham and her guests, Mrs. John Seymour Montgomery and Mrs. Hoge Gilliam, of Riverside, Conn., and Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Powers.

Mrs. James Bell McCombs gave the third of a series of auction bridge parties at her apartment in the Hanover yesterday afternoon.

Miss Virginia Caesar, of Tacoma, Wash., was the honoree at a pretty dance given at the Country Club of Virginia last evening by Mrs. Philip Edwards Johnson and her daughter, Miss Mary Hoadly Scarborough. The decorations were entirely in trailing vines, pink snapdragons and daffodils, and vases of spring flowers were arranged on the tables. A buffet supper was served at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Johnson, who received with her daughter and Miss Caesar, wore a gown of black and white chiffon over satin. Miss Caesar wore yellow chamoisee embroidered in gold, and Miss Scarborough, pale blue satin with insets of cream-colored lace. About 100 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hawley, of Lynchburg, gave dinner at the Jefferson Hotel yesterday for Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Smith, of Culpeper.

Mrs. Axtell's At-Home.

Mrs. Decatur Axtell gave the second of a series of very charming at-homes at her residence, 912 West Franklin Street, yesterday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock. The drawing-rooms were arranged with bowls of Killarney roses, and pink snapdragons were used in the hall. In the dining-room the table was set with an exquisite lace cover and a tall silver vase of Killarney roses. Four Colonial silver candlesticks, shaded in rose-color, were arranged at the head of the table, and there were vases of pink buds on the mantel. Mrs. Axtell received alone and Mrs. Edwin C. Laird poured the tea.

Entertaining To-Day.

Mrs. William Marshall will entertain at cards this afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. James P. Reid, and Miss Warwick, of Norfolk.

Miss Charlotte Jones will be guest of honor at a luncheon to-day, at which Mrs. Henry Marshall, of West Franklin Street, will be hostess.

The Third Damsel.

The dancing set in Richmond is looking forward with great eagerness and pleasure to the third "the-dance," which will be given by the Girls' Club in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel to-morrow afternoon from 4:30 to 7 o'clock. Miss Nellie Tompkins is chairman of the committee on information and reservations of tables, and a great many tables have already been engaged for the afternoon. The contest and dances will take place from 5:30 to 6 o'clock, and dancing before and after that time will be general. A handsome silver cup has again been offered for the most graceful couple dancing, and several hundred fashionable folk will be in attendance. These entertainments have been among the notable society events of the winter season, and have been tremendous successes from the very first. The last of the series will take place on April 18.

Going to the White.

A great many Richmond people are leaving to-day on the special train for the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs to attend the big George Washington ball there to-morrow evening. It will be a brilliant event, and hundreds of guests from all over the North and South will arrive at the White to-day and to-morrow to attend the ball and spend the 6 o'clock-end at this famous old watering place.

Miss Booker's Concert To-Night.

Fashionable society will be out in full force this evening to hear Miss Bettie Burwell Booker, when she appears in a song recital at the John Marshall high school auditorium. Miss Booker, who is a lovely and charming person, and formerly made her home in Richmond, is one of the most noted sopranos in America. She has been for some time a member of the Covent Garden Royal Opera, in London, England.

The concert is under the auspices of the Raven Society of the University of Virginia, to aid that student organization in the effort to place a monument upon the unmarked grave of the mother of Edgar Allan Poe, in old St. John's Churchyard. Many interesting parties have already been made up by the alumni of the university, and a large and enthusiastic audience will greet Miss Booker.

Cosby-Courtland.

A pretty wedding celebrated on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs.

J. J. Courtland, 1225 Floyd Avenue, was that of Miss Pansy Lee Courtland and Edward M. Cosby, of Washington. The bride wore a white silk gown trimmed in crystal, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The groom wore a tuxedo, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Leslie Courtland, who was the groom's best man.

Only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Cosby left later in the evening for an extended Northern tour. They will be at home on their return at 1225 Floyd Avenue.

Birthday Party.

A delightful party was given at the home of Miss Helen Deuel, 234 South Laurel Street, on Wednesday, in honor of her birthday. Miss Alma King rendered several musical selections, and supper was served at 11:30 o'clock in the dining-room which was decorated in flowers, ferns and palms.

Among those present were Misses Mattie Keats, Mammie Chalkley, Addie Cannon, Alma King, Eunice Williams, Harry Eubank, John William, line Froneer, Ernest Travers, E. H. H. Northington, Eddie Samuels, Grover Hinkle, Lee Henley, Clinton Starke, Brooks, King, and Fauntleroy.

Marriage in Washington.

The marriage of Miss Beulah Christine Davis, of Richmond, and Dr. David Patterson Scott, of Ashland, W. Va., was very quietly celebrated in Washington on Tuesday at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. J. Dimon, rector of the church. The bride was given in a costume of blue tulle, with a hat to match, and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Davis, of Richmond, attended her cousin as maid of honor, and Dr. Irving Land, of Norfolk, was the bridegroom's best man.

After a few days' stay in Washington, Dr. and Mrs. Scott will leave for a Southern trip, and on their return, will make their home in Ashland, W. Va., where the former is now located.

Annual Luncheon.

The annual luncheon given by the Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in honor of Washington's birthday, will be held at the Commonwealth Club on Monday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. A. E. Hunt and Mrs. M. Allen Chambers have the affair in charge, and all names must be given by the 10th inst.

Charity Functions.

A Japanese tea for the benefit of the Church of the Holy Comforter will be given to-night from 8 to 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. T. Snyder, 1825 Grove Avenue. Mrs. Mary E. Hunter, "Shirley," will give several recitations, and there will be a musical program as well.

Mrs. Sallie Montgomery Brown and

Coming of The Sunbeam

How to Avoid those Pains and Distresses Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered

It is a pity more women do not know of Mother's Friend. This remedy softens the muscles, enables them to expand without strain, and enables women to go through the ordeal without pain, nausea, morning sickness or other distressing symptoms so familiar to many mothers.

There is no foolish diet to harass the mind. Thousands of women no longer resign themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They know better, for in Mother's Friend they have found how easy it is to banish all those dreaded experiences.

It is a subject every woman should be familiar with, and even though she may not require such a remedy, she will now and then meet some prospective mother to whom a word in time about Mother's Friend will come as a wonderful blessing. This famous remedy is sold by all druggists, and is only $1.00 a bottle. It is for external use only. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 227 Lantry Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most valuable book to expectant mothers.

Diamond Rings

We have some special good values in Diamond Rings, which were bought before the tariff was put on them. So if you want a real bargain, call and see them.

THE DIAMOND MERCHANT,
J. S. JAMES
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN,
Seventh and Main Sts.

Ladies--- Think!

What it means to be able to obtain shoes of the TAYLOR & BROWN quality, absolutely AT COST.

We are closing out our entire stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes.

So the earliest selection is best.

Cash--No Exchange
Taylor & Brown
913 E. Main St.

THALHIMER'S Who Needs Towels

By a fortunate purchase we secured much under price 62½ dozen Huck Towels, extra heavy and extra large—a towel that would be considered a good buy at 20c each, or $2.25 per dozen.

To-day they go on sale at $1.60 per dozen.

Mrs. John L. Satterfield have charge of the musical and literary tea that will take place this evening at 8:15 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Satterfield, 2717 East Grace Street, under the auspices of St. John's Circle of the Daughters of the American Revolution. This is the first of a series of small functions that will be given by the circle this year, in place of one large entertainment.

A very attractive program has been arranged for the George Washington Teacher Association of the William L. Fox School this afternoon and evening in the auditorium of the school. The afternoon will be devoted especially to the children, and appropriate games, and refreshments will be served.

This evening at 8 o'clock, and also to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the lecture-room of St. Paul's Church, the Junior Auxiliary will give an interesting and unique entertainment. The program will consist of three plays presented by three branches of the auxiliary, and a reception will be held afterward in the parish house adjoining St. Paul's.

The Camp Fire Girls of the Second Presbyterian Church will give a "camp fire evening" to-night at the church. Mrs. T. Croxton Gordon and Miss Beale will direct the entertainment. The affair is for missions.

A Colonial birthday party will be given by the Ladies' Auxiliary this evening at 8 o'clock at the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association. All guests are invited to dress in Colonial costume for the occasion, and refreshments will be kept with the celebration of Washington's birthday.

Entertainment on Monday.

An interesting event on Monday evening will be an entertainment, entitled "Visit of the President of the United States," which is to be held at 219 Stuart Avenue, from 8 to 10 o'clock. The affair is for the benefit of the Woman's Club of Westminster Church.

To Give Play.

The Sunday school class of St. Benedict's Church will give a play to-night at 8:15 o'clock in the basement of the College Hall, corner Hanover Avenue and Shepherd Streets.

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Hugh Skiplin, of West Franklin Street, has come to Washington to be the guest of friends.

Mrs. F. C. Meacham and Mrs. James C. Smyth are returning to-day from a short visit to Norfolk.

Miss E. Lee, who has been the guest of Mrs. William Roane Aylett in Newport News, has returned to the city.

Miss Bettie Burwell Booker, of the University of Virginia, is the guest of Mrs. W. F. Dance, of 1334 Park Avenue.

Mrs. George W. Clatterbuck, of Roanoke, is visiting her uncle, George W. Irvine, a member of the House of Delegates, at his residence on Cary Street.

Colonel William King, Jr., has returned to Lynchburg, after a brief stay in this city.

Mrs. Charles Irving Phillips is rapidly recovering from a recent serious illness.

H. P. Adams, of Lynchburg, is spending some time with friends in this city, before returning to his home.

Mrs. James J. Pollard has been to New York City for the past several days.

Misses Julia and Margaret Lee, of Towson, Md., are visiting Mrs. Lillian Watson on West Grace Street.

Miss Sadie Neale is visiting friends at Old Point, where she attended the hop on Saturday, also the Senior Assembly at the Chamberlin on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Copeland, of Newport News, arrived yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Judson Cunningham for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Day have returned to their home in Norfolk, after a short stay in this city.

Mrs. Frank Davis, of this city, is visiting Mrs. James H. McCue in Bristol, Tenn.

Mrs. Charles Kesslich and her daughter, of Lynchburg, arrived in Richmond on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. S. Blanton, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Yarbrough, in Richmond, has returned to her home in Newport News.

Mrs. James F. Reid, of Norfolk, is the guest of relatives in this city for a week.

Miss Louise Finch, of Richmond, has gone to Lynchburg to visit Miss Kate Doyle in that place.

Miss Marie Ward, who has been spending the past two weeks in this city, has returned to Newport News.

The Rev. Thomas G. Faulkner, assistant rector of Holy Trinity Church, and Mrs. Faulkner are residing temporarily at 216 Shafer Street.

Mrs. John Lindsey, of 2000 Floyd Avenue, is extremely ill at St. Luke's Hospital.

Engagement Announced.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., February 19.—The engagement of Miss Edith Somers, prominent in the social life of the University of Virginia, to Leland Taylor, of Louisville, Ky., a graduate of the Virginia Law School, was announced Tuesday afternoon by her aunt, Mrs. J. Johnson Bradish, at a luncheon given at the Bradish home, just west of the university.

Spindle-Tignor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., February 19.—Allen D. Spindle, of Essex County, and Miss Minnie L. Tignor, daughter of John A. Tignor, of Stafford County, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, Rev. Norman Luck, of Carroll County, performing the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Spindle will make their home in Essex County.

THOUSANDS PAY TIBUTE TO BACON

Nation, Native State and Home City Join in Final Honor to His Memory.

Macon, Ga., February 19.—Under weeping, sodden skies, the body of Augustus O. Bacon, soldier, statesman and for seventeen years United States Senator from Georgia, to-day was laid out in his grave at Rock Hill cemetery here. To-night the new-made grave will be the scene of a great bank of flowers, piled high by the loving hands of hundreds of sorrowing friends.

Simply marked the burial service, before the long procession followed the body to the grave, a brief, impressive service was said at Christ Episcopal Church, at the foot of the coffin was lowered to its last resting place with the rites of Masonry. Every honor that it was in the power of the nation, his native State and his home city to accord to Senator Bacon's memory to-day marked his funeral.

Thousands of citizens faced the driving rain to march with the funeral cortege, which followed the streets through which the procession passed. Accompanied by the band from Washington, Confederate veterans, National Guardsmen, members of Senator Bacon's immediate family and official representatives from many State organizations, followed the body to the cemetery and stood silent during the short services there. Among the mourners was Governor John M. Slaton, who accompanied the funeral train from Atlanta.

To-night the congressional delegation which came from the national capital to attend the funeral returned to Washington.

Public schools, all State and city buildings and practically every business house in the city were closed during the funeral services.

Webb-Gardner.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Christiansburg, Va., February 19.—The marriage of Miss Hunter Gardner to Thomas D. Webb, of Richmond, was celebrated here on Monday evening. The bride's parents on Monday evening. Miss Gardner has spent the past three years in Richmond, and came to Christiansburg to celebrate the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Webb will make their home in Richmond.

Constantine Kills Negro.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., February 19.—At Phoenix, Charlotte County, Constable Moore this afternoon shot and killed a young negro, named Watkins, and several other negroes were creating disorder at the Virginia Depot when Constable Moore was investigating. He asked what was the trouble, and they replied with curses, and two of the negroes attacked him, whereupon he killed one and arrested the other.

Enjoyable Dance at Louisa.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Louisa, Va., February 19.—The young people of the Louisa and round neighborhood have a delightful dance at the town hall on Wednesday evening. The old-fashioned square dances were the order of the evening. About 100 couples were present, and supper was served at 11 o'clock, after which the dancing was continued for several hours longer.

Alexandria Man Disappears.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alexandria, Va., February 19.—Walter P. Herlick, forty-three years old, contracting carpenter, disappeared from his home, 515 Cameron Street, on Friday, and since then no trace of him has been found.

Mr. Herlick, who has been suffering from nervous trouble, and it is believed that this is responsible for his protracted absence.

Two Women Burned to Death.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., February 19.—Miss Bessie Ridgeway, aged thirty, daughter of the late Samuel Ridgeway, died this evening from burns resulting from an explosion last night, when she poured oil from a can into stove. Her sister, Mrs. Frank T. Ridgeway, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Bluemont, Va.

Mrs. Sarah Lawre Orourke, aged ninety-two, who lived alone near Green Spring, was burned to death last night, presumably while warming pillows. Three sons and two daughters survive.

Nelson-Hargrave.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chatham, Va., February 19.—The home of J. Hunt Hargrave, on Wednesday afternoon, was the scene of a brilliant wedding, when his daughter, Miss Gladys Hargrave, became the bride of Thomas L. Nelson, of Nashville, Tenn. The wedding party consisted of the strains of the march from "Cohengrin" played by Miss Bessie Tidwell, Miss Gladys Hargrave, maid of honor, entered from the library, followed by the bride with her father, J. Hunt Hargrave. The groom and his best man, Fred Jeter, of Birmingham, stood at the altar to receive them. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Keenrath, assisted by Rev. T. Ryland Sanford. The bride wore a gown of peacock blue, with hat of the same shade. The couple left on the afternoon train for an extended Eastern trip.

The Secret of Beauty—FREE

A Masterpiece in color by C. Allen Gilbert, the well known artist.

We will send to all users of Gauraud's Oriental Cream, a copy of Mr. Gilbert's beautiful painting entitled "The Secret of Beauty" in panel form 11 x 22 inches. It is a splendid reproduction on highly colored paper of one of the girl's figures Mr. Gilbert is noted for and is not marred by any printed matter which would prevent framing. Send 10c in stamps to cover wrapping and postage. —We are confident you will be highly pleased with the picture and calendar and find it a valued addition to your library or den.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

It purifies, beautifies and preserves the skin. Relieves blemishes, and gives that clear, soft, pearly white complexion so much admired. It is a liquid non-greasy preparation that nourishes the skin and protects it from the disagreeable weather of all seasons. It has stood the test for over sixty-five years.

F. T. HOPKINS & SON
37 Great Jones Street
NEW YORK

WANT BETTER RATES ON COAL SHIPMENTS

Matter of Readjustment Taken Up Before Interstate Commerce Commissioner Harlan.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, February 19.—Attorneys for coal producers and consumers in Virginia, West Virginia and other Southern States to-day attended a hearing before Interstate Commerce Commissioner Harlan in the matter of a readjustment of rates on bituminous coal from the Pocahontas, New River and Black Mountain regions to Virginia, North Carolina and other Southern States.

The bituminous coal producers of the Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky mines are contending for a readjustment of rates to the different States which will maintain a relationship of rates, so that all the mines can compete on the same territory; the consumers are demanding reduced rates from all the mines, while the railroads are seeking rates from the mines to the points of consumption.

A large number of complaints by consumers of excessive rates between these points have been received for one hearing, which will be continued throughout Friday and Saturday, and an official decision probable continuation at some later date.

R. Tate Irvine is appearing for the Black Mountain miners; J. F. Bullitt, of the Pocahontas, is representing the Stone Mountain interests, and Mr. Caskie, a Washington attorney, is representing the Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce, which intervened on behalf of the Lynchburg Cotton Mills, one of the largest employers of North Carolina, in appearing to intervene on behalf of the North Carolina shippers.

G. H. M.

BIG STILL DESTROYED.

Officers Make Important Seizure in Franklin County.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., February 19.—While some of their fellow officers were engaged as witnesses in Federal Court here, Deputy Collector Mundy, with Constables Newton and Marshall, slipped down into the Shenandoah section of Franklin County yesterday morning and destroyed one of the largest illicit whiskey-making outfits found in that section in a long time. The plant showed evidence of having been in recent operation, but the fires

Recovered from Lung Trouble--Now Insured

Insurance companies will not accept any one affected with Lung Trouble. When you know a man who has been afflicted and who later has been insured, it means that the policy-holder must be in a very good state of health. Cases have been reported where Lung Trouble has been cured by Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, have successfully passed the medical test of insurance companies. Read this case:

"Gentlemen: About a year and a half ago I noticed that my health was rapidly failing. I was thin, weak, and had a cough and was very weak; having, in fact, absolutely no ambition whatever. About this time I consulted a physician who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied with his diagnosis, I consulted another examining me, said that I was in the first stages of Lung Trouble. At this point I decided to take Eckman's Alternative. My cough became looser and gradually disappeared. My weight is now 15 pounds, and my physician has pronounced me perfectly well, which, together with the fact that I have just been accepted by two different insurance companies for insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alternative."

(Above abbreviated; more on request.)

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and all other troubles of the Throat, Lungs, and Chest. Contains no narcotics, no poisons, or habit-forming drugs. Sold by Truett Drug Co. and other leading druggists. For booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.—Adv.

Jury Recommends Mercy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlotte, N. C., February 19.—James L. Goleak, the aged laborer who, crazed by drink, shot and killed his wife in this city during the Christmas season, was to-day found guilty of murder in the first degree, the jury making a recommendation of mercy.

Safety Devices for Hydro-Aeroplanes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, February 19.—Hydro-aeroplanes must carry the proper whistle, port and starboard running lights, and all the other paraphernalia prescribed by the Department of Commerce, and made to-day by the Department of Commerce.

Just for Friday

15c White Check Dimity, 98c yard

27 inches wide, in neat, small checks for waists, dresses, underwear and night gowns.

35c White Wool Flannel, 25c yard

This Flannel is 27 inches wide, and noted for its washing and wearing qualities.

$1.69 and $2 Printed Chiffons, 98c

A 42-inch silk in ombre effects of green and purple, navy with pink floral designs, black and white stripes.

Women's $5 Shoes $3.48

Tan Russia Calf Button Shoes, stylish lasts, comfortable and easy wearing. The sizes are somewhat broken, but we clean them up to-day at a third off.

Spring Flowers

Are Now at Your Commaad

Ratliff & Tanner

Madison 6081 25 W. Broad
"We Grow the Flowers We Sell"

About Our Jewelry

Beauty and durability, coupled with prices within the reach of every one, are the chief characteristics of our complete stock of Jewelry.

Glad to show you any time. See these stocks.

H. COHEN,
707 East Main Street.

Between Meal Bites

When the youngster asks for something to eat between meals, give him bread made from

Dunlop Flour

Batter Bread

that Makes

YOUR MOUTH WATER

MADE WITH

Good Luck Baking Powder

"Good Luck's" purity is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. For sale by grocers everywhere. Ask for it.

The Southern Mfg. Co.
Richmond, Va.

Another Big Cut in the Prices of Groceries at

Strang & Parrish

Eighteenth and Main Streets.
Phone Madison 1907.
Goods Delivered Free.

Arbuckle's Coffee, per lb. .... 22c
Granulated Sugar, per lb. .... 4 1/2c
American Queen Flour, 1 lb. .... $5.10; sack ..... 33c
Best Salt Pork, lb. .... 15c
Smoked California Hams, lb. .... 14c
Large Cans Tomatoes, ..... 6c
Best Cans Corn, ..... 8c
Square Brand Milk, 3 cans for ..... 25c
Winner Milk, 3 cans for ..... 25c
Navy Beans, per qt. .... 9c
Choice Salmon, 4 cans for ..... 25c
Sun-dried Apples, per lb. .... 10c
Snap Soap, 12 bars for ..... 25c
Octagon Soap ..... 4c
Soapine ..... 4c
Large Lemons, per dozen ..... 16c

The sale you have been waiting for is on Bargain Tables for the whole family.

Hohelmer's
Third and Broad.